What's New in the Html Advert Creator?

Html Advert Creator helps you to create consistent and effective HTML based adverts for your products. You can use the generated code in eBay, emails and website pages. As first impressions count the better your adverts are the better the chances are you might get a bid or purchase. Also images speak a thousand words and many potential buyers would prefer to see what they are bidding for or purchasing before they bid or buy. eBay know this which is why you get your first image for free but after that they currently cost 12p for each additional image. Hosting your own images so you can include more images for free in your adverts or using our hosting service is cost effective and improves your chances of a successful sale. Requirements: ☑ Internet Explorer Limitations: ☑ Will not generate any HTML
